

Mary A. Bogucki

Mary has been with Amergent since 1999 and currently serves as Vice President. She has spent over 25 years in client and project management. For the past 15 years, she has focused on direct marketing in both the commercial and not-for-profit arenas, bringing results-driven strategic direction, production know-how and overall campaign management to her clients.

She and her team are privileged to deliver successful marketing campaigns, award-winning creative and in-depth strategic analysis to clients such as the Greater Chicago Food Depository, Maryknoll, Cleveland Foodbank, St. Anthony's Guild, The Greater Boston Food Bank, Oblate Missions, Philabundance, Gleaners Community Food Bank and Freestore Foodbank.

Mary currently serves on the Advisory Council for the DMA Nonprofit Federation. She has had the pleasure of speaking on a variety of topics at NCDC, DMA, Feeding America and AFP conferences.
