

Matt Panos
Food for the Hungry
Vice President, Ministry Partnerships & Resources

As Vice President of Ministry Partnerships & Resources, Matt carries broad responsibilities that include leading the major fund development, child sponsorship, gift-in-kind resources, and marketing and general communication efforts for Food for the Hungry.

Before coming to Food for the Hungry, Matt primarily served in the healthcare industry, working for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Orange, CA, the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA) in New York, NY, and Baptist Hospitals and Health Systems in Phoenix, AZ.

Matt received his MBA from California Coast University. He attended North Carolina State University where he studied Business Communications and Wildlife/Conservation. Matt was a scholarship athlete on the golf team at North Carolina State in the mid - 70's.